

“Vine to Glass”:

You are very cordially invited to this wine tasting, part of The Wine & Spirit Education Trust (WSET) “Wine Education Week”.

Do you enjoy a glass of wine or work in the hospitality/ wine trade and would “love” to know and understand more about wine? Are you overwhelmed and bamboozled by the many different wines available? If so then this introductory wine- tasting (of 6 wines) and informal talk and discussion is for you; it will provide you with skills to taste wine like a true professional and some understanding of the factors, which influence the final taste of a wine. This will provide you with an insight into what the Wine & Spirit Education Trust Courses can offer the keen amateur or the professional in the wine and hospitality businesses.

The Wine & Spirit Education Trust ,WSET(www.wsetglobal.com), is the largest global provider of wine qualifications; to celebrate its 50th anniversary it is launching the first ever global “Wine Education Week” from 9th - 15th September to inspire and educate the growing numbers of wine consumers as well as the trade professionals, encouraging them to learn more about wine and to drink better!

As an approved provider of the WSET’s courses Helen Duddridge of Duddridge Wine Associates (www.suffolkwinecourses.co.uk) would be very happy to welcome you to the “Vine to Glass” Tasting on Monday evening, 9th September at 7pm or on Saturday morning 14th September at 11am for an enjoyable tasting with lively discussion.
